Tasks:

- Editing and assisting with the publication of long-format, Russian-language media reports
- Managing a network of between 25 to 30 journalists from all project countries
- Supporting project participants in researching and drafting reports where necessary
- Ensuring ongoing exchange and communication between all project participants
- Supporting the drafting of workshop materials
- Coordination and planning of two project workshops in project countries before the end of 2015
- Carrying out in-depth research on project topics

Qualifications:

- At least 10 years experience in a major Russian-language news publication
- Specialization in long-format (feature) writing
- Proven commitment to independent journalism and media ethics
- In-depth knowledge of the post-Soviet region and sensitive trans-boundary topics such as frozen conflicts or electoral politics, etc.
- Excellent written and spoken command of Russian is essential (candidates with knowledge of Belarusian, Ukrainian, Georgian, Armenian, Azeri, or Romanian will be prioritized)

- Excellent written and spoken command of English is essential; knowledge of German is desirable.
- Cultural sensitivity is essential. The successful candidate will be working with journalists from seven countries and will be required to manage these relationships.

We offer:

A dynamic, interdisciplinary and international work environment; interesting, diverse and inspiring tasks; family-friendly working hours. Initial duration of the contract is until the end of 2015, starting as soon as possible.
