WEBINAR

Navigating Media Development Challenges in the Asia/ Pacific region

In times of decreased development spending and a resurgence of authoritarian rule, media support in the Asia/ Pacific region is challenged to intensify efforts to safeguard public interest media who serve their audiences with relevant and accurate information. DW Freedom Think Tank invites you to discuss the current situation of media development in the region, as well as possible solutions. The webinar will present results and insights from the State of Media Development Report for the Asia/ Pacific region.
