WEBINAR

From challenges to solutions: towards effective media support in the MENA region

The media development sector in the MENA region faces many challenges including lack of core funding, inadequate crisis response, weak coordination and limited investment in knowledge. The State of Media Development Report sheds light on the key challenges, highlights best practices, and presents practical recommendations to effectively support the sector. Join us for a dialogue on the future of independent media and rethinking the shape of future support in the MENA region.
