FOR MORE INFORMATION: <https://www.imf.org/external/np/cpac/gandd.htm>

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) is an organization of 189 countries, working to foster global monetary cooperation, secure financial stability and sustainable economic growth, and reduce poverty around the world. IMF Giving Together supports charities in our host city, Washington D.C., and in low-income countries, through monetary grants and in-kind donations.

IMF Giving Together is run by the Civic Program Advisory Committee (CPAC) every year. CPAC members -IMF staff, spouses and retirees- volunteer their time to review all requests for financial and in-kind donations. IMF Giving Together funds are for humanitarian purposes only and are separate from the IMF's financial support for member countries and policy programs. Charitable grants and staff donations have totaled over $6 million since 1994.
